

For Immediate Release
October 2, 2008
Contact: Judy Kim
judy.kim@limruger.com
(213) 955-9500

Former AT&T Assistant GC Sakamoto Joins Lim Ruger

Sandy L. Sakamoto has joined Lim, Ruger & Kim, LLP as Of Counsel to that 20-lawyer law firm, focusing on real estate and business transactions.

Ms. Sakamoto had previously served as General Attorney & Assistant General Counsel for AT&T in charge of its Los Angeles regional law department. During her twenty-two years as in-house counsel for AT&T, she oversaw a variety of matters, including commercial litigation, real estate transactions, telecommunications operations, and contract negotiations. Ms. Sakamoto formulated successful business and legal strategies involving cell site licensing, advanced technologies, state and municipal regulatory barriers, easements and public rights-of-way, and a wide array of business and real estate transactions.

“Lim Ruger partners with successful entrepreneurial businesses, and I am delighted to join it,” said Ms. Sakamoto. “The firm is also deeply rooted in the community, which I value very much.”

John Lim, Managing Partner of the firm, said, “Sandy brings years of experience with a global company and practical problem-solving skills to our transactional practice. We are thrilled to have her.”

Ms. Sakamoto is a 1983 graduate of Loyola Law School. She is the chair person of the board of the Japanese American Cultural and Community Center in Los Angeles, and serves on the board of directors of the Asian Pacific American Legal Center and the Pacific Asian Consortium in Employment (PACE).

Lim Ruger is trusted by Fortune 500 companies, multinational corporations, governments and private entrepreneurs. As one of the largest minority-owned law firms, Lim Ruger been solving the legal problems of successful corporate and entrepreneurial clients since 1986. www.limruger.com